but being too large a Number for Rogers and his Men to withstand, they prudently retreated; but not without making Use of all advantageous Places in their Retreat to fire upon the Enemy, some of whom they are confident to have killed, whilst they themselves had only a few slightly wounded.

From Fort Edward, we have Advice, That on Thursday, the 9th Instant, a Party of Carpenters were sent out at some Distance to cut Timber, with about 15 Soldiers to cover them; that the Centries were no sooner fixed than the whole Body were fired on by a Scout of 60 French and Indians in Ambush, which killed and wounded several of our Men, and that the Remainder got safe into Lyman's Camp, situated a little below the Fort: That Mr. Lyman directly ordered out three Parties of 30 Men each, ordering their Route, the one to the Right, another something to the Left, while himself, with the Third, went to the Place from whence the Carpenters were routed, where they found a Path, and following it a little Way, they discovered some Tracks, when he de-after came upon the French and Indians sitting down, immediately fired upon them, and took 14 of their Packs: That they afterwards saw them carry off some of their Dead and Wounded, and found large Quantities of Blood about the Place, would meet and entirely disperse them.

ELIZABETH TOWN, June 10.
Last Sunday Morning three Indians who were fed the Day before by a Person from Hyndshaw's Fort, fired upon three Men and two Women in a Scow, going over from our Fort at Walpack, to Hyndshaw's Fort: They killed Stofel Demark, wounded his Wife through both Thighs near the Knee, thought to be mortal, and her Sister through the Side, grazed the Ribs. On Wednesday some Indians called to our Men, at Cole's Fort, to come out, but being only a Sergeant and 7 Men, they refused. The same Evening the Indians were heard on the Hills near Hyndshaw's Fort, which is opposite to Walpack.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.
Extracts of Two Letters from Carlisle, dated the Twelfth and Thirteenth Instant.

June 12. "Lieutenant Holliday, with Twenty-five Men, went last Week from Fort Loudoun to the Great Cove, where he was attacked by a Party of Indians, and I am afraid we shall have but a bad Account of the greatest Part of them."

June 13. "A Person, from Conococheague, just now tells me, that Lieut. Holliday, and three of his Party, are found dead, and that four more are missing: That on Saturday last a Woman was carried off by the Indians, a little Way from Jacob Sneve-ly's, near the Maryland Line: And that Indians are daily seen in different Parts of that Settlement."

Extract of a Third Letter from Carlisle, June 17.
"This Minute an Express, from Fort Frederick, arrived here, with Letters to Colonel Stanwix, informing him of a large Body of French and Indians being seen by a Party of the Cherokees at Colonel Dunbar's encamping Place, the other Side of the Great Meadows, with a large Number of Waggon, and other Carriages: Colonel Stanwix marches to-morrow to the Relief of Fort Cumberland, as, by the Enemy's Course, it is supposed they are destined for that Place;
I believe he will take as many of the Provincials with him as are, or can be seen, in Readiness."

The Privateer Spry, Capt. Bowne, of this Port, in Company with Capt. Davis, in a Privateer belonging to New-York, has taken a French Schooner, laden with Sugar, Coffee, &c. bound to Bordeaux from Martinico, and carried her into St. Christophers.

ANNAPOLIS, June 30.
Friday last his Excellency our Governor returned to Town from Frederick County.

Tuesday last the Embargo on Shipping (which had been for about fifteen Weeks) was entirely taken off.

We have an Account from the Westward, that a few Days ago, one Man was Kill'd and Scalp'd by the Enemy, and another Shot through the Belly, but he made his Escape, though it was thought he could not recover. The Person Kill'd, was Shot as he was standing at his own Door, and a Boy and a Girl carried away into Captivity.

By a Ship from Liverpool, we have an Account that Mr.
JOHN LOMAS, who was many Years an Inhabitant of this City, died there last Winter.

This Day several Ships from London came up the Bay; by whom we learn that on the 18th of May, a large Fleet of Merchantmen, for different Parts, sail'd from Plymouth under Convey, to a certain Distance, of 6 Sail of Men of War, when Thirty-two Sail for North-America, under Convey of the Ludlow-Castle, Capt. Clarke, parted from the rest.
All those for Chesapeake Bay, consisting of 23 Ships, are safe arrived; they parted with those for Philadelphia, New-York, and Carolina, on the Coast. Just before they sail'd, it was currently reported, that the King of Prussia had sent an Army of the Queen, of Hungary's, and killed 12,000 Men.

The French King has been shot at as he was Hunting, and narrowly escaped; but the Assassin had got off. No Papers being yet come to Hand, we cannot give any Particulars.

We hear that Capt. French, just come in from Barbados, has brought Advice, that Eleven Sail of French Men of War had Block'd up Jamaica; and that Six Sail of Ours had Block'd up Martinico.

In the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE for April, is the following Paragraph, viz. "Saturday 16. (April) Admiral Holburne, with the Men of War and Transports
"destined for America, sail'd from St. Helen's with a fair "Wind. He is still to wait for the Embarkation of the "Troops from Ireland. And as certain Advice has been "received, that a Squadron of Men of War with good Land
"Forces has already sail'd from Brest, under the Command "of Lieut. Gen. Lally on the same Voyage, it is feared our "Reinforcements will again be too late. Besides this "Squadron, another has lately sail'd from Toulon, consisting "of four Ships of the Line and a Frigate, under the Com"mand of M. du Roust, which is victualled for seven "Months, and has a considerable Number of Land Forces
"on board; but its Destination is not certainly known."
